At one time the shares of the Sugar Mill fell to 1.50 yen on the Government subsidy being granted, a quotation revived to 18 yen. Still, the shareholders are losers of 22 yen investment of 40 yen, and there is some uneasiness over the matter. Profit and loss account for the first half of the year made public in July last, showed a profit of 13,000 yen.

8,000 yen having been paid out of the pockets of the President and officers of the Company, with the purpose of impairing the credit of the company to the disadvantage of the shareholders, pretending there was no share in order to induce shareholders to buy up. By this means some of the shares were then made payment of 5-yen per share, so that those who had 1,000 shares were able to pay 5,000 yen. In the meantime, the large shareholders in the company were
